

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 740

By McDonald

A RESOLUTION to commend Charles M. Haynes upon his receipt of the William C. Tune Award.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pause to specially recognize those estimable public servants who have dedicated themselves to improving the quality of life for their fellow citizens; and

WHEREAS, Charles M. Haynes is one such estimable person who evinces the greatest integrity and probity in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, recently, Mr. Haynes was presented the William C. Tune Award by the Tennessee Real Estate Commission for his many contributions to the real estate industry; and

WHEREAS, this prestigious award is named after and dedicated to the memory of William C. "Bill" Tune, a former member and chairman of the Tennessee Real Estate Commission who was a nationally-known real estate educator and author; and

WHEREAS, in choosing a worthy recipient for the William C. Tune Award, the Tennessee Real Estate Commission members nominate individuals who represent the highest ideals of dedicated service and professionalism in real estate education; and

WHEREAS, through appointment by two different Governors, Mr. Haynes has served on the Tennessee Real Estate Commission for twelve years and was elected by his peers to serve as Chairman of the Commission for seven of those years; and

WHEREAS, working tirelessly to make sure that the Commission fulfills its mission to protect the public and to ensure that licensees are well-prepared to meet the challenges of the real estate profession, Mr. Haynes has been instrumental in the advancement of realtors throughout the State; and

WHEREAS, possessing both invaluable experience and a passion for the real estate industry, Mr. Haynes strives to maintain professionalism and ensure fairness and equanimity in all Commission actions and decisions; and

WHEREAS, Charles Haynes's remarkable success as a public servant and civic leader is directly attributable to his reliance on the time-honored values of hard work and common sense and his uncommon ability to work well with people from all walks of life; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Haynes is an extremely giving person who often reaches out with compassion to people whom life has treated unkindly, and he epitomizes the ideal of the consummate professional, dedicated public servant, and reliable friend and neighbor; and

WHEREAS, Charles Haynes is wholly committed to the noble precepts of public service that have earned Tennessee recognition as the "Volunteer State," and he should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby commend Mr. Charles M. Haynes for his honorable and astute service to the good people of Tennessee, congratulate him upon his receipt of the William C. Tune Award, and salute his unswerving commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
